Re: Telecommunications Education Access Fund for month of _____

	Total	Rate	Remittance
Access Lines or PBX Trunks		$.26
Centrex Station Lines		$.0325
Total Remittance

All registered telecommunication service providers that invoice the end user in the State of Rhode Island are required to bill to its residence and business telephone subscribers a monthly telecommunications education access surcharge on each local access line. The monthly amounts collected will be remitted to the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission. This surcharge is not subject to the sales and use tax or the gross earnings tax. See Rhode Island General Law § 39-61-1(d).

Note: The monthly relay assessment for a PBX trunk should be on $.26 surcharge for each trunk. Centrex equivalent trunks shall be assessed one surcharge for every eight stations serviced by the centrex system (i.e., each Centrex station line is billed one-eighth of the current rate of $.26).
